

I have Sorenson VRS. The lock out mode thay use does not allow me to have full access to other deaf people who may have had cameras from different organizations. Therefore, I am forced to operate with duplicate systems in order to use them as an equivalent phone type of service.

Tbhis is unfair. Rob Abbott